NUMB. 380.

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From THURSDAY May 28, to THURSDAY June 4, 1741.

BERLIN, March 4.

WHEN the King of Pruſſia left this Place, on Sunday the 19th paſt, to go to Sileſia, it was the Talk at Court that his Majeſty did not propoſe to return hither till the Campaign was quite over; for the opening of which the greateſt Preparations of all Kinds have been making here, and with incredible Diligence. The ſecond Train of heavy Artillery which was ſent from hence the 27th of laſt Month in ſeveral Veſſels, conſiſts of Fifty Cannon 24 Pounders, and Sixteen Mortar Pieces. With ſuitable Stores of Ammunition. The raiſing of Recruits, and the forming of new Regiments have been carried on with unuſual Expedition; all Servants are inliſted, and all Horſes that are found fit for Service are taken up. Since his Pruſſian Majeſty's Acceſſion to the Crown, his Army has been augmented with Twenty Battalions and Thirty five Squadrons, and his whole Forces now amount to above One Hundred Thouſand Men.

Advices from Sileſia import, That the Pruſſians had began to batter Glogau with ſome Pieces of Cannon the 2d Inſtant.

Copenhagen, February 28. The Colonels of Foot here have received Orders to provide Cloathing for an additional Number of eight Men per Company, which the King has ſettled Meaſures for being furniſhed with in Caſe of a ſudden March. The Officers of the Cavalry are likewiſe ordered to make an actual Augmentation of Ten Men each Troop, and Sixty four Men are to be added to the Artillery Companies.

Venice, February 25. Our Letters from Albania and Dalmatia yet aſſure us, That the Turks are making great Preparations for War, not only on the Frontiers of thoſe Provinces, but alſo in many other Parts of their Dominions in Europe; all which gives ſome Uneaſineſs to the Republick. We wait impatiently for Letters from our Embaſſador at the Porte, becauſe the laſt Advices from thence informed us that the Turkiſh Empire ſeem'd to be at the Eve of a great Revolution.

We hear that the Court of Spain has cauſed conſiderable Remittances to Italy; and they write from Naples, that the Troops deſtin'd for Tuſcany would certainly begin to march towards the End of this Month; ſo that freſh Troubles are apprehended in Italy.

Naples, February 28. The King has publiſhed an Ordinance, enjoining all Fœdatories of the Crown to furniſh a Man for every Fief, by which Means 10 or 12,000 Men will ſpeedily be raiſed.

Ratiſbon, March 16. The Auſtrian Miniſter has repreſented to the Dyet, that he has receiv'd Orders to complain of a Declaration made by the Elector of Bavaria, viz. That his Electoral Highneſs would not ſuffer the Deputies, whom the Court of Vienna is to ſend to the Dyet of Frankfort, to paſs thro' his Territories. The other Miniſters have not explained themſelves on this Head.

Leghorn, March 4. We hear from Corſica that Ships arrive there from Time to Time with freſh Troops from France.

LONDON, March 7. Yeſterday arrived a Mail from Flanders, with Letters of the 14th ult. O.S. from Vienna, and adviſe, that the German Huſſars had retaken Jablunka from the Pruſſians, after having entirely defeated one of their Parties of 500 Men, and put them to the Sword; and that the King of Sardinia had actually aſſembled 30,000 Men, who had been furniſhed with Ammunition from Tuſcany.

The Dove, a 40 Gun Ship lately launch'd, is ordered to be victuall'd with all Expedition.

The Yachts are order'd to be got ready the Beginning of April; for which Purpoſe four of them are already dock'd; as will alſo the Charlotte and the William and Mary next Week.

It is ſaid that no leſs than Ten Thouſand Barrels of Gun-Powder, and a great Number of Muſquets, have been juſt imported from Holland; neither of which have proved ſerviceable.

Thurſday his Majeſty was pleaſed to make a general Promotion in the Army.

March 10. Letters from St. Sebaſtian's, by the French Mail, mention, that Five ſtout Privateers, well mann'd, lately ſail'd from that Place, and that two more were ready to be launch'd.

On Saturday a great Number of Cheſts of Arms were landed at the Tower from on board a Ship juſt arrived from Holland.

A moſt magnificent Field Equipage is getting ready for his Majeſty.

We hear that Five Hundred battering Cannon and Forty large Mortars are ordered to be caſt for his Majeſty's Service.

The Mary Snow, Capt Beſt, bound from South Carolina to London, was taken by the Spaniards, and carried into St. Sebaſtian's.

March 12. We hear from Caſſel, that the 6000 Heſſians in Britiſh Pay have receiv'd Orders to be in Readineſs to march.

Some Letters from Berlin make mention of an Attempt in Sileſia againſt the King of Pruſſia's Life; they give us no Particulars of it, but only ſay there's ſomething very extraordinary in it.

March 14. We hear that Sir John Norris goes on board the Victory at Portſmouth the latter End of this Month.

We hear that four Men of War, two of Forty and two of Fifty Guns, are ſoon to be ſent to join Admiral Haddock in the Mediterranean.

March 17. The Boulton, Capt Whorlton, from Carolina for London, is taken by a Spaniſh Privateer, and carried into St. Sebaſtian's.

The laſt Letters from Conſtantinople, by the Way of Venice, adviſe that there has been a great Revolution in that Metropolis; and that the Grand Vizir has been depoſed, and that ſeveral People have loſt their Lives upon this Occaſion.

It is ſaid Letters in the Holland Mail mention, the Elector of Palatine's Death.

Charlestown, June 4

Charleſtown, June 4. Laſt Friday arrived here Capt. John Rouſe, in one of the Boſton Privateers, in three Weeks from Jamaica, but without any Prize.

Capt. Rouſe informs us, that the Day before he ſail'd from Jamaica, Capt. Warren brought in a Spaniſh Privateer (with 130 Men on Board) belonging to St Jago; and that the Day he came out, he met above 40 Tranſports, and Men of War going in. About the Beginning of May he was at Carthagena, and ſays, that Admiral VERNON had taken the three Forts mention'd in our laſt with the Loſs of only 40 Men; that the Spaniards had ſunk 6 of their Men of War in the Harbour, notwithſtanding which the Admiral has got in and taken Don Bl-ſ's Ship, whoſe Flag he immediately ſent to England; and that in ſcaling the Walls of the Citadel, they in one Morning had 700 Men killed.
